Josephus Daniels Comes Here To-day to Discuss Stump Tour

Will Hold Conference with Democratic Chairman—Wilson to Deliver Two Addresses in New York—Bainbridge Colby Takes 2-to-1 Odds.

Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, will be the star visitor at Democratic national headquarters to-day. He will confer with Chairman Vance McCormick in regard to some changes in his speaking itinerary during the remainder of the campaign. Mr. McCormick said yesterday President Wilson probably will speak twice in this state, once in this city and once in Buffalo. The dates have not been fixed.

Bainbridge Colby, nominee for United States Senator on the Progressive ticket, was a breezy visitor at Democratic national headquarters yesterday. He reported to Chairman McCormick that he had placed two bets on President Wilson, one being $500 against $1,000, the other $200 against $400. Members of a certain club to which he belongs took the Hughes ends. In answer to a telegram from Francis J. Heney, of California, one of the small herd of radical Bull Moose on the Pacific Coast, Mr. Colby wired a brief, pithy statement why he believed Wilson should be elected.

Speaking of radical Progressives, John J. O'Connell, chairman of the New York County Progressive Committee, will head the delegation of local Bull Moose who will join the pilgrimage to Shadow Lawn to-morrow. This week-end affair at the summer capital has been arranged by the Independent Wilson League and the College Men's National Wilson League.

Edwin S. Harris, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, carried New York state for Wilson yesterday. He told Chairman McCormick the President would poll 100,000 more votes than Mr. Hughes.

"This estimate is based on a careful canvass made by the Democratic State Committee," said Mr. Harris, "which showed that the President has a wide and militant Democratic party behind him, together with the support of a large number of Republicans who believe his reelection is necessary for the safety and well being of the country."

No Republicans of that belief have been sighted from the conning tower at Republican headquarters.

The Democrats increased the voltage of their national campaign yesterday. R. W. Woolley, director of publicity, announced that since Thomas A. Edison had electrified the country by turning the spotlight on Wilson the leaders in the white light industry had organized the Woodrow Wilson National Electrical Club. Mr. Woolley declared that although the club was only a few weeks old it had several thousand members, representing thirty-eight states, with Progressives and Republicans included in the membership. The slogan of the club is "For the Flag and for Wilson."

Announcement was made yesterday that Professor Ernest Merritt, of the department of physics of Cornell University, had decided to support President Wilson for reelection. Professor Merritt gave his reasons to the Woodrow Wilson Independent League.

The Tammany Tiger jumped through the hoop for Wilson yesterday. At the weekly meeting of the National Woodrow Wilson College Men's League, at the Hotel Biltmore, Sheriff Al Smith growled at Charles E. Hughes. He said that when Hughes was Governor he "caused more internal trouble among his party than any of his predecessors."

GREEK DECISION STILL FAR OFF

Ultimately Expected to Meet Allies' Demand for Business Cabinet.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—According to Athens dispatches the settling of the latest crisis in Greece will be both long and laborious, but it will be ended with the selection of a business Cabinet in compliance with the spirit of the note sent by the Entente Allies on June 21.

The Daily News Athens correspondent says: "Despite the efforts of the official announcement to throw upon the Entente the responsibility for the resignation, the fact remains that the immediate cause was the King's unshakable determination to adhere to neutrality at all costs to himself and his country."

After waiting vainly for recognition from the Entente Powers, M. Kallergopoulos decided to sound M. Briand through the Greek Minister at Paris, as to the conditions under which the Entente would accept Greece's entry into the war.

"M. Briand's answer, frank and categorical, was in effect, that although the situation of to-day had entirely changed, Greece having forfeited the sympathies she had enjoyed among the Entente, one of whom, namely, Italy, opposed her admission—yet if the King personally would offer the unconditional participation of Greece in the struggle, declare war against Bulgaria and order a general mobilization, the Allies would reply that they would accept the proposition and promise to aid Greece in every way to carry on the war, and also protect Greece's interests, provided the new policy was carried out by a government in which the Allies could place full confidence."

"It was answered caused a majority of the Cabinet to decide to participate in the war, which decision the King refused to approve."

G.O.P. FIGHT HERE TO END IN BLAZE

Wind-Up of City Campaign Will Set Record for Vigor.

BIG HUGHES RALLY ON NIGHT OF NOV. 4

Torchlights, Red Fire and Band Will Stir Enthusiasm.

The plans for the wind-up of the Republican campaign in this city are the most elaborate ever made by the party. The executive committee of the Republican County Committee outlined a tentative programme yesterday which includes a Hughes night, a Roosevelt night, a Senatorial night and a Whitman and state ticket night. The culminating Hughes rally will be held at Madison Square Garden on November 4, the Saturday night before election, and Mr. Hughes will be the principal speaker. Other speakers of national prominence will also address the meeting.

The dates for the other meetings have not yet been fixed. The committee hopes to get Colonel Roosevelt to address one meeting, which will probably be held at Durland's Riding Academy. Senator James W. Wadsworth, William M. Calder, Republican nominee for United States Senator, and Robert Bacon, his adversary in the primaries, are booked as the speakers on Senatorial night.

Other Special Nights.

Special nights will be arranged for Governor Whitman to fit in with his itinerary update. There may be two or three Whitman meetings on Saturday nights. One night will be set aside for the nominees on the state ticket.

Many smaller meetings will also be held. There will be torchlight processions, plenty of red fire and bands and all the paraphernalia of the oldtime campaign. Frank K. Bowers is to have charge of all the indoor meetings, and the outdoor meetings are to be supervised by Alfred J. Cox.

Chairman William R. Willcox of the Republican National Committee, has called a meeting for Monday of his advisory committee, though it is doubtful if he can attend. The campaign situation will be thoroughly discussed, particularly as regards the Middle and Far West. The situation in Ohio and one or two other doubtful states, will receive particular attention. William L. Ward, of Westchester, a Senatorial candidate, will be present. Mr. Willcox is sometimes referred to as "the original Hughes man," and one or two other members of the committee who have not yet attended a meeting are expected to be on hand.

Penrose and Perkins Meet.

Another harmony handshake, which, in the mind of Chairman Willcox, was added proof that practically all former and present Republicans were working together for Hughes, occurred at national headquarters yesterday. Senator Boies Penrose, of Pennsylvania, and George W. Perkins, of the National Committee, met in Mr. Willcox's office, quite by accident, it was said, and indulged in a most friendly conversation.

"Nothing strange that we should be together, is there, George?" said Mr. Penrose when the newspaper men broke in on them. "Why, Mr. Perkins and I have known each other for thirty years."

Senator Penrose declared that he was working shoulder to shoulder, and all that sort of thing. It isn't like it was four years ago, is it, George?

Mr. Perkins shook his head vigorously. Senator Penrose declared that he was working shoulder to shoulder, and all that sort of thing. It isn't like it was four years ago, is it, George?

The Republican State Committee will meet to-day to decide how many Progressives will be among the forty-five Presidential electors from this state. State Chairman Frederick C. Tanner and George W. Perkins conferred on the matter yesterday. Six places have been left vacant, but the Progressives think they ought to have eight. It is likely the committee will compromise on seven.

BACON EXPENSES $9,611

Paid Whole Cost of Campaign Himself, His Report Says.

Albany, Oct. 5.—The primary expense statement of Robert Bacon, the loser in the recent struggle for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, which was filed with the Secretary of State to-day, showed no receipts and disbursements of $9,611.14. Of this amount, $5,835.69 was spent for advertising purposes and the rest for expenses incident to the preparation of his designation petitions.

VANCE M'CORMICK SUED BY O'LEARY

$50,000 Demanded Because the Lawyer Was Called Hyphenate.

Jeremiah A. O'Leary, head of the American Truth Society, brought suit for libel yesterday against Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the Democratic National Committee. O'Leary asked for $50,000 damages. The summons in the case was served on Mr. McCormick in Democratic national headquarters yesterday. The suit is based on an alleged libellous statement purporting to have been made by Mr. McCormick, which appeared in "The New York Times" of October 4.

The Democratic chairman was quoted in that paper as saying that O'Leary should be a friend of Charles E. Hughes, the Republican Presidential nominee, as no one doubted any more that Mr. Hughes had "accepted the candidacy of the hyphenates of the country." The Truth Society head did not take exception to the accusation that he ought to be a friend of Mr. Hughes, but he objected to being called a hyphenate.

Denounces McCormick's Action.

"Mr. McCormick, without knowing me, and apparently to make political capital, issued a statement to 'The New York Times' calling me a hyphenate and insinuating that I was not loyal to my country," said Mr. O'Leary. "I have started a suit in order to challenge Mr. McCormick to prove his insinuations before an American jury, and to ascertain whether or not a desire to secure a compliance with American rights, and respect for American rights, constitutes disloyalty to my country."

O'Leary, who is a member of the executive committee of the United Irish-American societies, recently sent a telegram to President Wilson, in which he characterized some of the Wilson foreign policies as un-American.

The President replied that he would be "mortified" if he were to receive O'Leary's vote in November.

Chairman Treats Suit as Joke.

Mr. McCormick had not seen a copy of the complaint in the action yesterday and did not know on what it was based. He turned the matter over to his attorneys, Chadbourne & Shores, of 14 Wall Street. Thomas L. Chadbourne, of that firm, is chairman of the New York Finance Committee of the Democratic National Committee.

The Democratic chairman considered the suit a good joke. Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the Democratic National Finance Committee, happened into Mr. McCormick's office when the latter was discussing the O'Leary summons with the newspaper men.

Will Have $50,000 Left of Fund.

"The question now arises whether damages accruing from such an action can be classified as legitimate campaign expenses," said Mr. Morgenthau, smiling. "I am sure we will have at least $50,000 left of our campaign fund."

The defendant has twenty days in which to answer the complaint, which had not been filed yesterday. John R. Jones, of 38 Park Row, where O'Leary also has offices, appeared on the summons as O'Leary's counsel. Mr. Jones said last night that his client also intended to begin other libel suits against newspapers throughout the country which have questioned his right and abused him for sending what he considered a perfectly proper telegram to the President of the United States.

TO HIT MEDDLING IN LATIN AMERICA

Hughes Has Evidence Wilson Aroused Suspicion and Fear.

WILL TAKE YEARS TO HEAL INJURIES

New Facts on Mexico Also Expected During Coming Tour.

A large part of Charles E. Hughes' speeches on his coming tour will be devoted to attacking President Wilson's "imperialistic" policy toward Central America. The Republican candidate has documentary evidence that this policy not only injured American prestige, but aroused suspicion and fear that it will take years to allay.

Close study is being given to the effect of Wilson "meddling" in Nicaragua, Santo Domingo and Hayti, in particular. It is expected that Mr. Hughes will charge that the Administration not only seized the police power of some Central American governments, but also, in spite of Wilson's pledges, harmed rather than helped the finances of these struggling republics.

Blamed for Disturbances.

The present disturbances in Nicaragua, it is understood, will be laid at the door of the President, and Mr. Hughes will contrast the interference in the governments of Hayti and Santo Domingo with the pledges made in Mr. Wilson's reaffirmation of the "Monroe Doctrine" before the Pan-American Union.

Mr. Hughes also intends to go deeper into the relations between the Administration and Mexico. He probably will tell some facts about the Pershing expedition after Villa, which the government censors have kept under cover.

Mr. Hughes devoted his second "day of rest" at Montclair almost entirely to study. He kept Lawrence Green, his secretary, and Carl E. Sheppard, his publicity director, busier than they have been since the campaign started. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes returned for an hour early yesterday morning and late in the afternoon, but that was their only recreation.

Itinerary of Tour.

Charles E. Hughes' itinerary on his third Western tour was announced yesterday. A noonday meeting will be held in Newark Monday, immediately after which Mr. Hughes will motor back to New York City to register. He will then board a special train for Philadelphia, arriving there at 8 o'clock, where an evening meeting will be held at the Academy of Music. He will leave Philadelphia at 10 a. m. Tuesday, October 10, going to Hagerstown, Md., where he will speak in the afternoon at the Interstate Fair. At Baltimore he will address a night meeting in the State Armory.

Wednesday he will go to West Virginia, making four speeches—at Clarksburg in the morning, Parkersburg about noon, Huntington about 6 p. m., and Charlestown at night.

On October 12 speeches will be made in the morning at Pikeville and in the afternoon at Louisville and Ashland. There will be a night speech in Louisville.

Crosses the Mississippi.

Friday he will speak at Springfield, Mo., about noon, with a night meeting at Joplin Saturday. Five speeches will be made in Nebraska—at Falls City, Beatrice, Fairbury, York and Lincoln, where Mr. Hughes and his party will rest over Sunday.

Monday, also, will be spent in Nebraska. Mr. Hughes speaking at Hastings, Grand Island, Columbus, Fremont and Omaha.

On Tuesday the candidate will speak at Mitchell, Sioux Falls and Yankton, S. D., and at Sioux City, Iowa, at night.

The special train will pass through Chicago about noon on Wednesday, and in the afternoon there will be brief speeches at Niles and Kalamazoo, Mich., with a night meeting at Grand Rapids, Mich.

Thursday's speeches will be at Bay City, Saginaw and Flint, Mich., and at Youngstown, Ohio. The party will return to New York from there, arriving Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Hughes will accompany her husband.

Collinsville, Conn., Bank to Close.

Collinsville, Conn., Oct. 5.—The Canton Trust Company here, which has a savings department, and has been conducted as a bank for forty-five years, is to be liquidated, it was announced to-day. Benjamin F. Case, the president, said that, while the affairs of the institution were in good shape, some of the assets might depreciate.
